STATUS: EXTREME, OF COURSE!

NEWS FEED: Stacking it on my skateboard hurts more now than it did ten years ago! Ouch!

Message:

Hey K-Zoners.

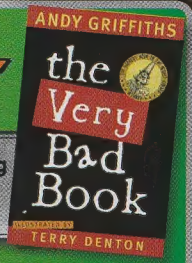

Welcome to our Extreme Issue! We've scoped skaters, rocked with Razor racers and busted out with BMX bandits – all in pursuit of the most extreme issue ever! Extreme Guinness World Records, TV and authors take me right back to my most extreme moment ever. I jumped out of a perfectly good aeroplane only to get my parachute stuck in a tree! It took a while for me to climb down! Before that, my most extreme moment was going off a jump on my mountain bike and taking a mega stack. Luckily, I was wearing my helmet, or I would have been toast! So, what's the most extreme thing you've ever done, K-Zoners? Email and let us know.

Catch you next month on November 15!

Dan and The K-Zone Crew

WIN ONE OF FIVE SIGNED COPIES OF ANDY GRIFFITHS' THE VERY BAD BOOK!

To enter, just send us a drawing of you doing something very bad, to K-Zone Magazine, GPO Box 7807, Sydney, NSW 2001.

Competition opens 18/10/2010 and closes 06/12/2010 at 5pm AEDT. Winners judged at the Promoter's premises on 08/12/2010 at 11am. Winners notified by mail on 22/12/2010.

MOST EXTREME MOMENTS EVER!

Kate commented on Extreme Moments:

My most extreme moment was waterskiing over a massive jump – and missing a submerged tree by an inch!

Nat commented on Extreme Moments:

My most extreme moment was flying through flames in a Monster Truck! For reals!

THE X-FILES

The K-Z crew open the file on Aussie skater, Corbin Harris!

Before I skate... I like to be by myself and try to keep away from people before a competition. I get a lot more done when it's just a few of us at the skate park for a photo shoot.

The trick I wish I could pull off is... More air combo's. 540's would be awesome!

My fave place to skate is... Japan. That place has street skating spots for days! So many are untouched, which makes it even better.

My typical day is... Busy! I wake up around 7am, go for a run and head into Fuel TV to do some prep for the show. Then I have meetings, plan trips and organise events. In the afternoon I go skating before I hit my bed!

If I could invent a skateboard... It would be the same skateboard that Michael J. Fox rides in Back to the Future!

When I'm not skating... I love surfing and snowboarding. Freestyle Motocross is one of my fave extreme sports to watch!

My signature move is... Doing tricks at a fast pace. It feels way better doing a trick when you're going fast!

My top three skate tips are...
1) If somebody says "you can't" or "you won't", push through and believe in yourself.
2) Don't let a few scratches and falls put you off.
3) Make sure you wear pads and a helmet!

VITAL STATS

FAVE SANDWICH: Chicken, avocado, salad and mayo!
FAVE TOYS: My BlackBerry Bold and MacBook. Do they count? I'm on them 24/7!
FAVE ANIMALS: Dogs and Wedge-tailed Eagles

TEAM EXTREME

Kids If you could pull off an extreme skate trick on any landmark in the world, what would you do and where would it be?

Tony Drop in from Ayers Rock into a huge Quarter Pipe!

Kids What other extreme sports are you into?

Tony Surfing and Snowboarding. I played Baseball and Basketball when I was younger, but quit when I started skating.

Kids What's been your worst injury from a skate accident?

Tony A broken pelvis from not completing a Full-Loop Ramp properly. It took a long time to get back on my board after that.

SUPER SKATE SKILLZ

Kids What are the most important skills a skater needs?

Tony Determination, perseverance, passion and the desire to keep challenging yourself.

Kids If you could invent a super-skateboard, what would it look like and what would it do?

Tony It would look similar to a regular skateboard, but it would be indestructible and capable of flying!

Kids What has been your all-time career highlight so far?

Tony Making the first Vertical 900 in the X-Games Best Trick event.

K-Zone rules! I love reading your Comics and Jokes. I play AFL, and love playing Pokémon.

IT UP!

...reme thrills and spills!

Grab Tony Hawk: SHRED from November 17 on Xbox 360, PS3 and Wii.

TONY GETS GAMING

Kids: What's your favourite console game?

Tony: I usually play Xbox 360, because it's what I test my own games on. Besides Tony Hawk: SHRED, I play Guitar Hero, Lego Harry Potter and Limbo with my kids.

Kids: What's your fave trick in Tony Hawk: SHRED?

Tony: Doing actual 360's on the board while jumping over big gaps. It tracks exactly how far you spin and then imitates it on the screen.

Kids: Which skaters and snowboarders are in the game?

Tony: Stevie Williams, Chaz Ortiz, Corey Duffel, Lyn-Z Adams Hawkins, Geoff Rowley, Louie Vito, Torah Bright, and Travis Rice.

TIPS AND TRICKS

Kids: What are your top three training tips for first-time skaters?

Tony: Take it slow, learn the basics and don't get too frustrated.

Kids: What's the craziest stunt you've ever attempted?

Tony: A Varial 720. I couldn't even get the board to spin underneath me!

Kids: If you weren't a Professional Skater, what do you think you'd be doing instead?

Tony: Editing images on computers, or playing the violin (for reals!).

Catch Tony Hawk skate up a storm when he heads Down-Under for Nine Lives Superstars Sydney Telethon 2010, from December 3-5.

THE RAZOR YOUNG GUN

JAMES SCOWN
AKA 'SCOWNY'
17, QLD

The best thing about being on the Razor Exposed Tour is... Checking out new skate parks and meeting up and coming riders.

The coolest stunt I can pull off is a... Front flip.

If I could create my own scooter... it would be strong and heavy with wide handlebars.

My best skill is... Trying anything I want to be the best I can be and I don't let fear stop me.

My goal for the year is... To finish school, do some more travelling and showoff my sweet moves on the Razor Exposed Tour crew!

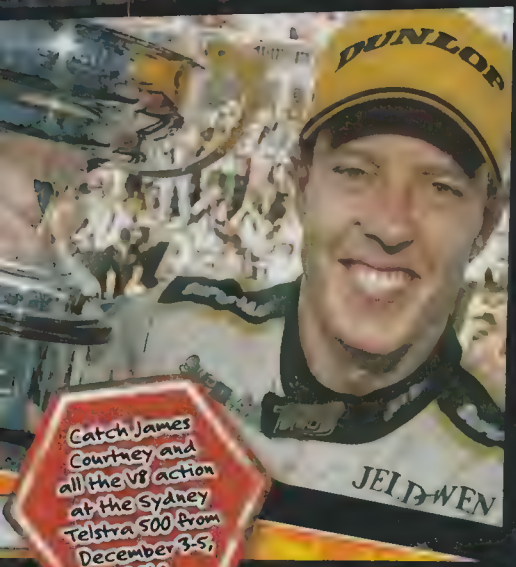

The Razor Exposed Tour scoots into Melbourne Riverside Skate Park on November 20! For more info. hit www.razoraus.com.au

EXTREME SUPERCAR

Hit the road with V8 Super

Catch James Courtney and all the V8 action at the Sydney Telstra 500 from December 3-5, 2010.

V8 VROOOOOOOM!

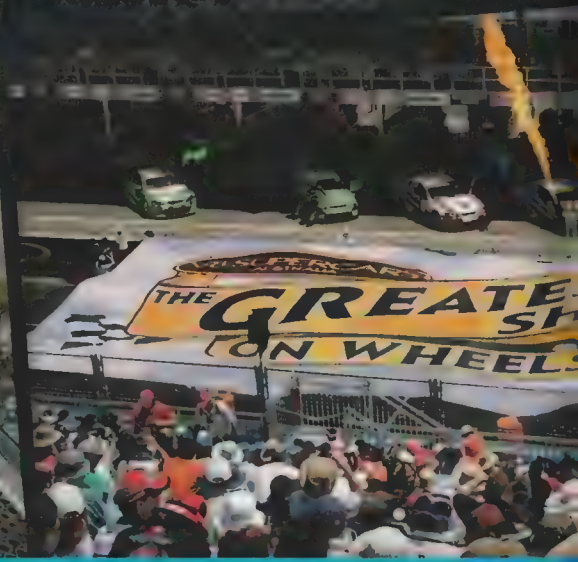

What's the best thing about being a V8 Supercar driver?
Definitely getting paid to thrash a fast car around a track at 200km/h.

What's the fastest speed you've ever reached in your Supercar?
I recently clocked just over 300km/h coming down Conrad Straight at the Bathurst 1000.

What has to happen in a race in order for you to get on the podium?
Winning a V8 Supercar race isn't easy. You need a competitive and reliable car, a driver who doesn't make mistakes, good teamwork at the pit stops and serious strategy!

How did you become a top driver?
Apart from all the driving and testing, I work really hard on my fitness. It helps with concentration when in-car temperatures reach 60 degrees Celsius.

K-Zone is the best. WWE is awesome. Hi to all my friends! I've got more than 50 issues of K-Zone.

SPEEDSTER!

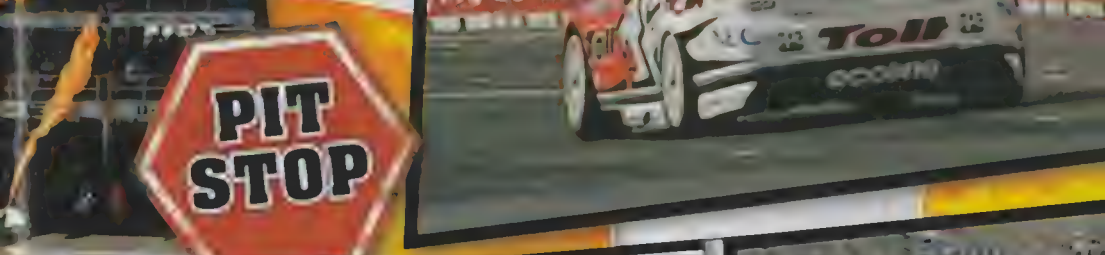

cars superstar, James Courtney!

TRACK TALK!

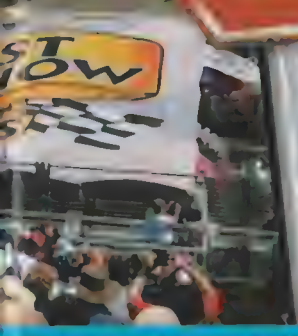

Where's your favourite track in the world?
The narrow street circuit in Macau is amazing, however Bathurst is also a fantastic track. The section across the top of Mount Panorama is all action!

What makes the Sydney Telstra 500 such an amazing race?
The track is a typical street circuit, which means that the car slides around on the bumps, manhole covers and drains. The 190,000 screaming fans aren't bad either!

What's your favourite console game?
Angry Birds on my iPad.

What would you be doing if you weren't a V8 Supercar driver?
I'd be a movie stunt driver. Filling in for Russell Crowe and racing the Chariots in the next Gladiator movie would be cool!

learn more about these extreme meat eatin' marsupials!

KZ: Why could Tasmanian Devils be extinct in 25 years?

NICK: Devils are affected by a devastating disease called Devil Facila Tumour Disease. This rare form of contagious cancer spreads when Devils bite and scratch each other when squabbling over food.

LEARN HOW YOU CAN HELP TASMANIAN DEVILS @ www.TASSIEDEVILAPPEAL.ORG

THE TASMANIAN DEVIL IS THE WORLD'S LARGEST CARNIVOROUS MARSUPIAL!

KZ: These animals seem extreme! Are they dangerous?

NICK: They are classed as a hazardous animal here at the Zoo. They are capable of inflicting severe wounds if they manage to bite, as they have very powerful jaws and large teeth. They have the most powerful jaw for their size.

THESE NOCTURNAL CRITTERS HAVE VERY POOR VISION AND CAN ONLY SEE IN BLACK AND WHITE.

FEMALE DEVILS GIVE BIRTH TO LITTERS OF UP TO FOUR AT A TIME, BUT THERE ARE ONLY FOUR TEATS IN THEIR POUCH.

Hello K-Zone team! I love your magazine! It is out of this world! I enjoy collecting Mighty Beans

Devil

TASMANIAN DEVILS HAVE MEALS INCLUDE KANGAROO, WALLABIES AND CHICKEN EGGS.

STEP INSIDE TARONGA ZOO'S NEW EXHIBIT WITH TASMANIAN DEVIL EXPERT, NICK DE VOS!

KZ: How did you become a Tasmanian Devil expert?

NICK: I have worked with Australian animals for over 13 years, and I'm now a supervisor on the Australian Fauna Precinct. Taronga Zoo is committed to help save this species, and is involved in a breeding program to release Tasmanian Devils back into the wild.

TASMANIAN DEVILS SPEND MOST OF THEIR TIME AT A WILD VAL. A ME THE SIZE OF A SMALL DOG!

KZ: Where do these animals live in the wild?

NICK: Once found all over Australia, this iconic animal is now restricted to Tasmania.

TASMANIAN DEVILS ARE GREAT CLIMBERS AND DETERMINED HUNTERS.

KZ: What is a unique feature of the Tasmanian Devil?

NICK: They have very little fur on their ears, which allows sunlight to penetrate through the skin, making their ears glow red!

KZ: What do Devils need to survive?

NICK: Devils need a den to sleep in, fresh water and heaps of food. Devils can eat up to half their own body weight in one sitting!

ESCAPE TO SCORPION ISLAND

New hosts, new teams and all-new extreme challenges. Go behind-the-scenes of Series Four!

MEET THE HOSTS!

KZ Where is Scorpion Island?

Johny: Scorpion Island's location is a mystery! All I'll say is that its beaches lap the shores of the Pacific Ocean and there are lots of lizards, spiders, snakes and leeches!

KZ Spill a behind-the-scenes secret?

Nyleene: One day, we spotted animal droppings that were so big, I thought a dinosaur would jump out! The island certainly plays host to some unusual and very large creatures. I'm just glad I didn't come face-to-face with them!

KZ What spooks you out about Scorpion Island?

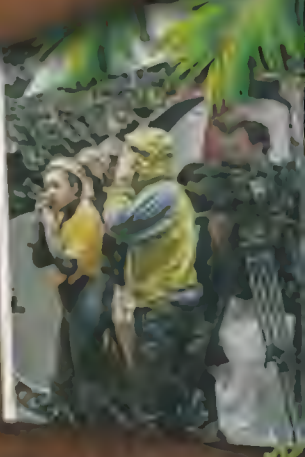

Johny: When night falls and strange sounds start to echo through the jungle. It makes me wonder what lurks behind the darkness!

KZ What's the best thing about hosting Scorpion Island?

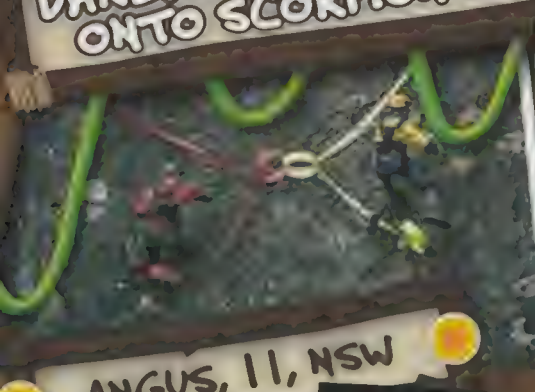

Johny: Getting to work in a tropical landscape everyday and going on adventures in the jungle!

Nyleene: Hanging out with both teams, exploring the jungle and trying out the games!

MEET THE AUSSIE DAREDEVILS WHO SKYDIVED ONTO SCORPION ISLAND!

TUNE IN!
Escape From Scorpion Island screens weekdays at 6:25pm on ABC3

TEAM STING

THE COOLEST THING ABOUT BEING ON SCORPION ISLAND IS...
The challenges! It was also great to make friends with kids from the other side of the world, join a team and go head-to-head.

THE TOUGHEST CHALLENGE WAS...
The Bone Collector! It was like a giant game of Operation. We had to go upside down, pick up a bone and throw it into a bucket.

THE CONTESTANTS WITH THE WORST HABIT WERE...
The boys, 'cos we wore the same clothes everyday. But, the girls fussed about their hair!

EXTREME ANDY

YOU PROBABLY DIDN'T KNOW THAT ANDY GRIFFITHS GOES RUNNING EVERY DAY, OR THAT HE SOMETIMES LISTENS TO PUNK MUSIC WHILE HE WRITES HIS HILARIOUS BOOKS! CHECK OUT ANDY AS YOU'VE NEVER SEEN HIM BEFORE!

KZ: Welcome to our Extreme issue, Andy. Congrats on being our Extreme Author!
ANDY: That's how I think of the Very Bad Book, it's pushing right out there to the extreme.

KZ: So what's the most extreme thing you've ever done?
ANDY: I used to be the lead singer of a band, but I wasn't that great a singer, so I'd distract the audience by putting on a crazy stage show. I used to stand on top of speaker stacks to keep the audience in suspense about when I'd fall off. They were fairly extreme stage shows!

KZ: Your school visits are like comedy shows, how did you get so good at it?
ANDY: Early on, I actually went to a stand-up comedy school, called the Humourversity in Melbourne!

VITAL STATS

FAVE TOY: My typewriter that I bought when I was nine from a school fete.
FAVE SANDWICH: Tofu, avocado, bean sprouts and a bit of cheese.
FAVE ANIMAL: At the moment it's Koalas, the Killer Koala variety!

KZ: What sports did you play as a kid?
ANDY: It was always something to do with running, I was a good sprinter and long-distance runner. I didn't know what to do with the ball in team sports! But give me a pen and a story and I know exactly what to do!

KZ: What's your ultimate extreme activity to try out?
ANDY: I like to snorkel, so I think it would probably be Scuba Diving.

KZ: Cool! Strange question, but how many marshmallows can you fit in your mouth at once?
ANDY: Haha, about 22, I researched that for a story.
KZ: That's extreme! Thanks for the chat, Andy!

Always remove plastic lids from soft drink or milk bottles before recycling. Leaving the lids on can trap air inside containers, which may result in a bottle blow-up later on!

Plastic bags can't be recycled – they get stuck in garbage sorting machines. So, keep them out of your plastic bin!

Pizza boxes and other containers with food scraps can't be recycled. Lightly rinse cans and jars before recycling, and trash empty pizza boxes in your compost bin.

K-ZONER TIP

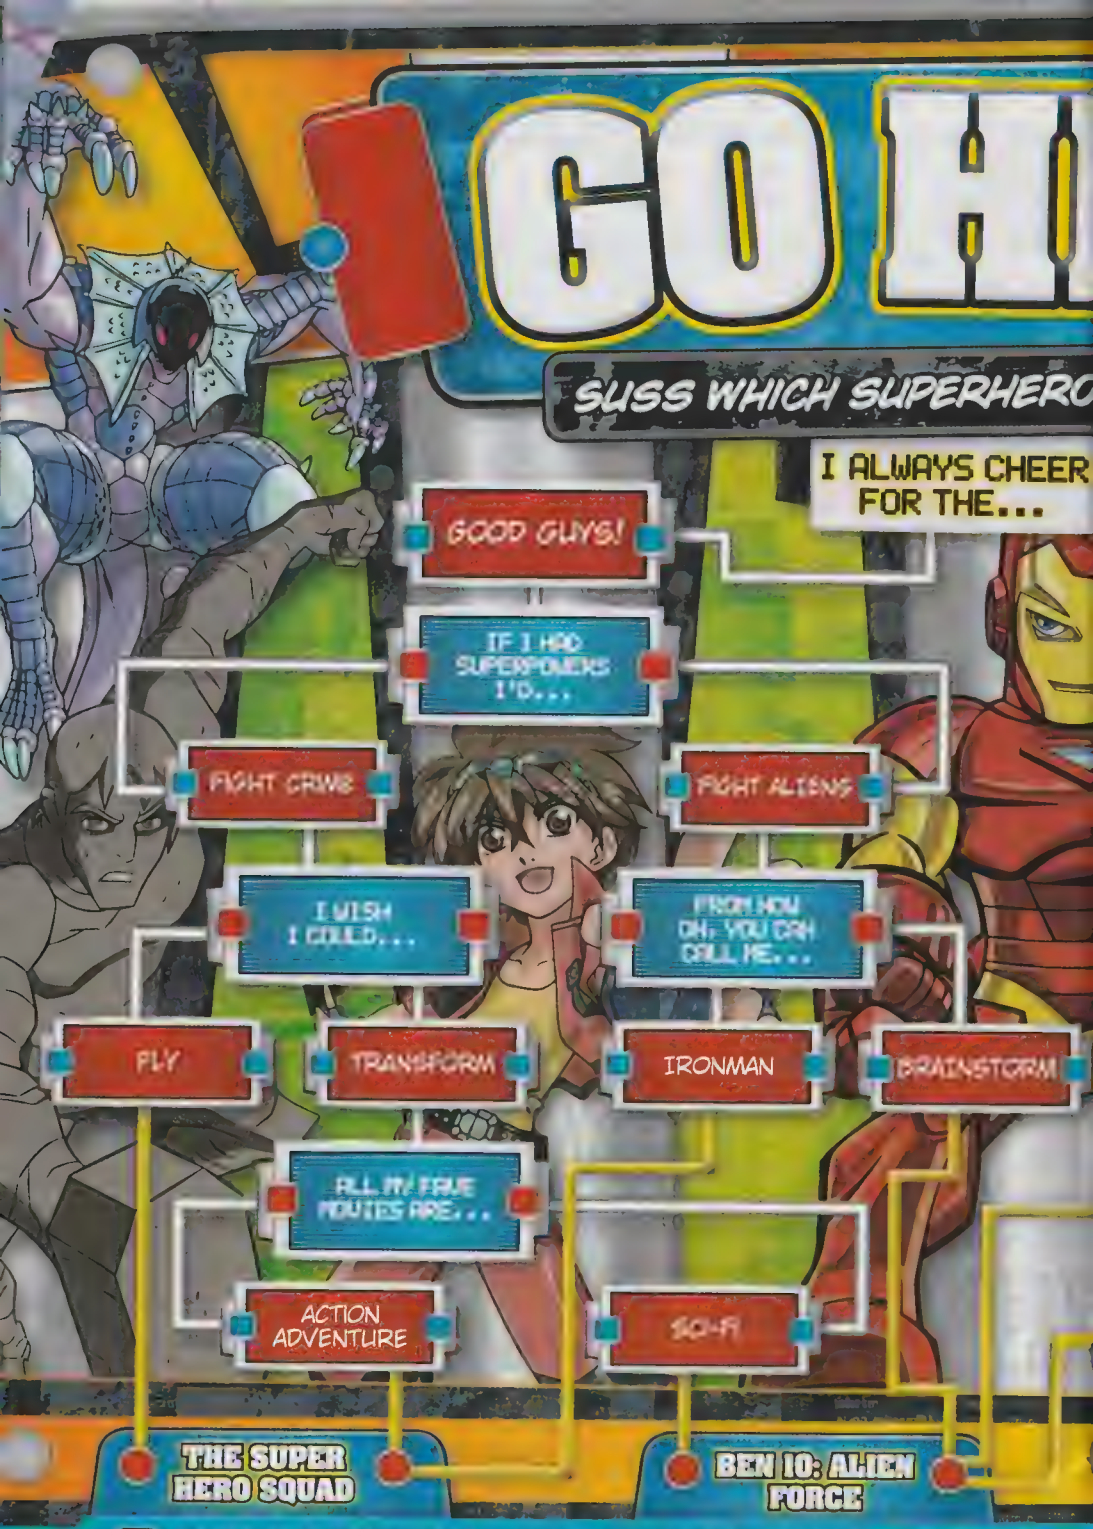

"Go green and pick up as much rubbish as possible. Then, sort it into piles and recycle glass, cans and paper." – Roman, 7, NZ

DID U KNOW?

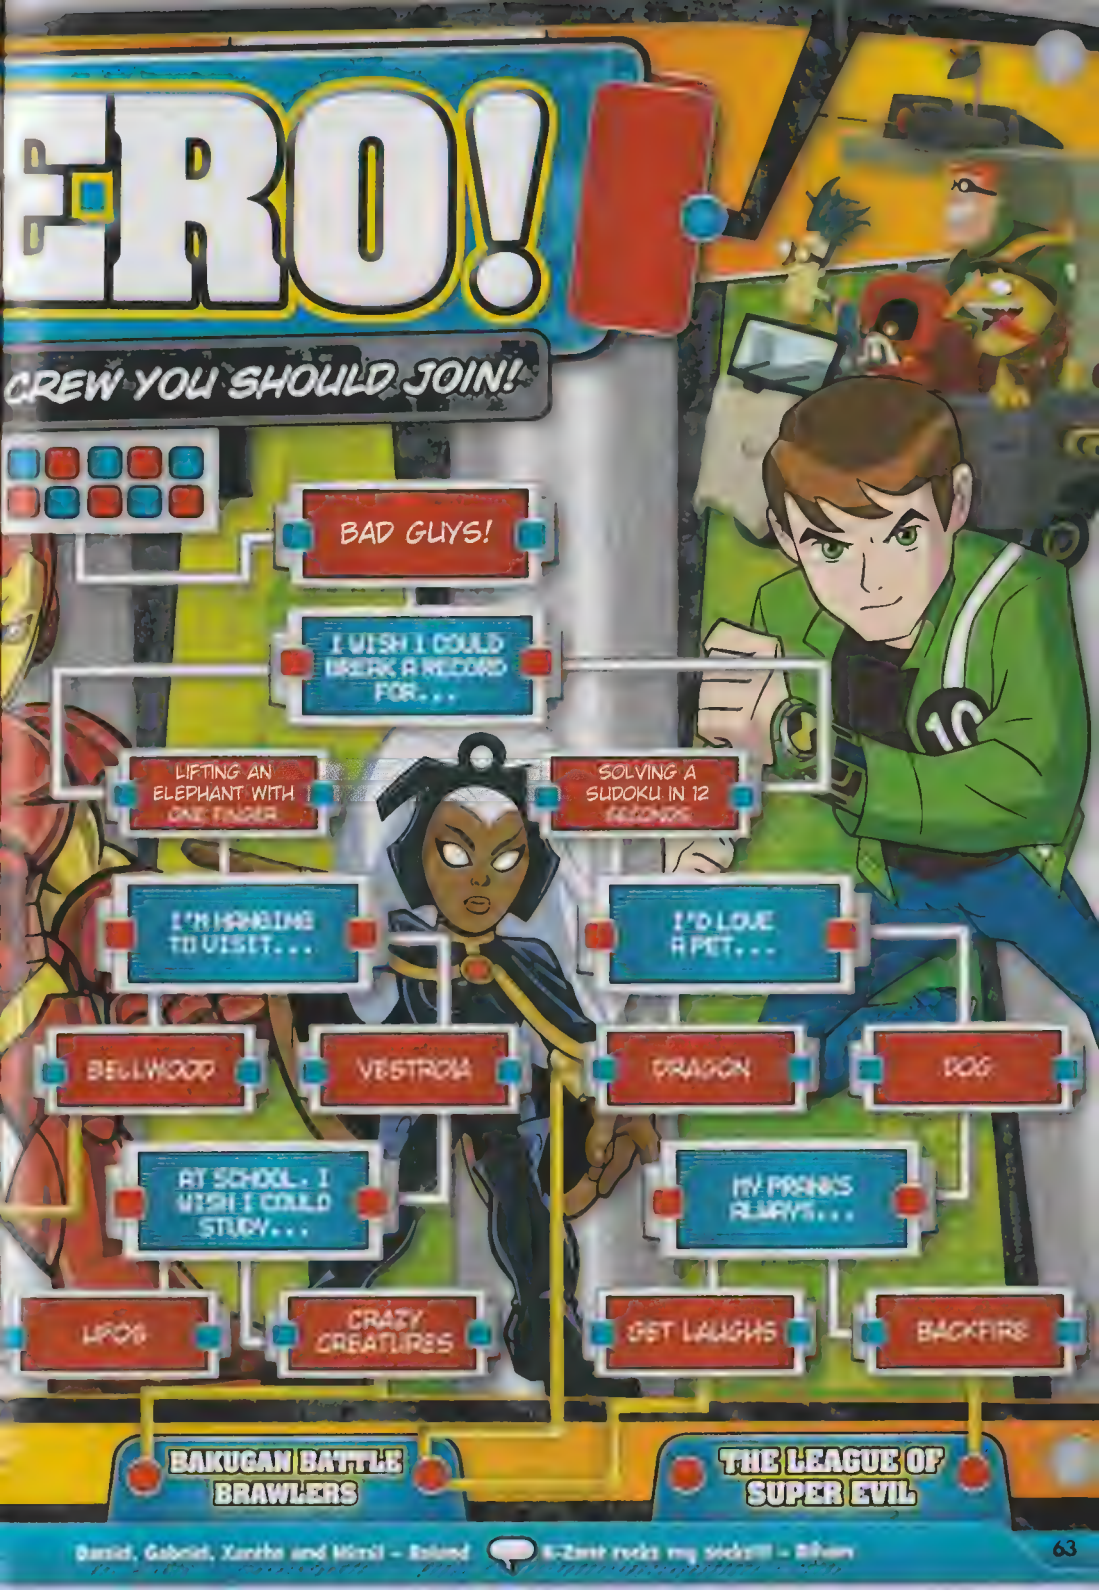

Every aluminium can that is recycled saves enough electricity to run a TV for three hours. Aussies recycle two thirds of all aluminium cans produced.

HOW TO DRAW

Learn to draw brave Batman and his bold sidekick Robin!

GO BATTY Sketch Batman using a pencil. Add cross hairs to his head, and mark the eye line and centre of his face. Then, add the outline of his cape.

SUPERHERO HEAD Add two, pointy ears on top of his head. His eyes are small and triangular. Draw and shade his mask, and add his other facial features.

BAT BODY Draw his cape, and add the Bat symbol on his chest. Add some muscles to his stomach, and draw the utility belt around his waist.

AWESOME ARMS Starting from his bulky shoulders, draw his arms one at a time. Sketch his forearms with the tri-spiked gloves, and his clenched fists.

LEGENDARY LEGS Starting from his thighs, sketch Batman's legs. Add his shins and boots, making sure you draw his angular knees in the centre.

BRAVE AND BOLD Using an ink pen, trace over your pencil lines. Once the ink dries, erase the pencil. Add some colour using dark blues, greys and solid black.

IN THE NEWS

box 360's Kinect is gearing up to hit lounge rooms very soon! K-Zone has tested a few Kinect games, and some are more accurate in reading your body's movements than others. If you're super-keen to get your hands on one, and most importantly, get the go-ahead from your parents, the Kinect hits stores on November 18.

Get ready, because here comes Final Fantasy on-the-go! The 4 Heroes of Light is a brand-spankin' new Final Fantasy DS game that's been secretly sneaking up on us. It tells the story of 14-year-old Brandt who must rescue a princess from the Witch of the North. Sound like another legendary fantasy to you?

You already know you can catch up on your fave Channel 7 shows on PS3 through the PLUS7 function, but now there's more exciting news! Foxtel will soon be available through Xbox Live – you'll have to subscribe, but it'll be easily accessible through the Live Menu.

Anyone who has an iPod Touch or iPhone will already know that they're becoming seriously cool gaming machines. The new Touch has an added bonus for mobile gamers. It's got an in-built Game Center that lets you share scores and achievements, making it a cinch to find out what your buddies are playing.

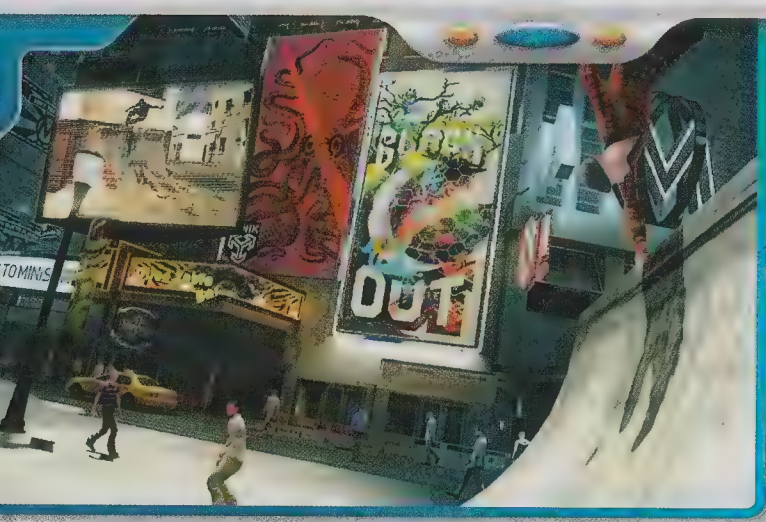

K-Zone usually sticks to standard controllers, but these Afterglow controllers definitely caught our eye. They're really different: they've got a clear body that lights up spectacularly thanks to the LED lights inside. Pretty cool – especially if you happen to be playing in the dark! Most importantly, they're nice and accurate. Cool!

Around the World in 80 Days and Titanic Mystery aren't your standard puzzlers for DS. 80 Days is based on Jules Verne's famous book, and in Titanic Mystery you'll need to solve puzzles to discover the truth about the infamous iceberg!

SHAUN WHITE SKATEBOARDING

It's been a while since we brought you news on Shaun White Skateboarding, but the latest is that we checked it out in 3-D, and it rocks! While you'll need a 3-D TV for the game to work (and they're still on the expensive side) the effect is really cool, especially when you get some serious air. Hitting ramps and launching skywards really makes it look like you've left the ground, and kick-flipping the board looks amazing. The main game sees you adding colour to a lifeless world by nailing insane tricks, and building up 'flow' in a story that was created by one of the writers from Family Guy! We also got to play a level from late in the game where you ride in between train tracks, with a helicopter shooting at you! Nuts!

2011

Absolutely mental! You've probably never heard that about a Tennis game before, but K-Zone was lucky enough to play Virtual Tennis 4 using PlayStation Move – and in full 3-D! For the most part, the controls were seriously accurate. The spin, speed and direction of the ball were pretty much spot on, but the drop shots and lobs took some getting used to. Still, the makers promise that those shots will be just as accurate when the game is finished. The 3-D effect was outstanding. It adds ridiculous amounts of detail to this game – it'll almost have you convinced that you're on a court. Andy Murray, Rafael Nadal and Roger Federer have all been confirmed to appear in Virtual Tennis 4.

NOVEMBER

Without a doubt, Football Manager 2011 is one of the trickiest games to get into – because it's so in-depth! But once you're in, you'll be hooked. Fans have sworn by the series for years, and after a sneak peek of 2011, K-Zone is tipping it to be the must-have game for serious soccer fans. The idea is simply to control and manage a team, but the rest of it can get pretty complicated. Everything from training, to buying and selling players, to keeping players happy and dealing with the media is in the game. It's up to you how many elements you want involved (you can automate parts of the game to look after itself), but the main aim of the game is to win championships. Football Manager 2011 also has a Set Piece Creator and lots of new options that allows you to analyse your team's statistics.

RAVING RABBIDS: TRAVEL IN TIME

Travel in Time brings the rabbids back for another crazy outing, and this time they're travelling back through history to when the Pyramids of Egypt were built, and when Leonardo da Vinci painted the famous Mona Lisa. The multiplayer game is broken up into about 25 mini-games. There are different categories, like games that challenge you to shoot, fly, throw, lift or even bounce. Each game will let you affect history depending on how well you perform. The final game will have a cool online mode too, which will let you take on other gamers and access leader boards.

NBA ELITE 11

NBA Elite 11? Yep, the series that was once NBA Live has changed its name. But, it doesn't end there! New controls and commands have also been introduced – so it's a whole new ball game! The new control system is called Hands-On, and it affects everything from dribble moves and drives, to dunks and steals. The right stick is now the key: flicking it will trigger everything – cool dribbles, shots and everything in between. But it's the graphics that are absolutely incredible. EA, the makers of the game, are masters at making sport look like the real deal, and in NBA Elite, they've done another smashing job. Slam dunk!

The game that comes with the PlayStation Move is a collection of mini-games that demonstrate just what the Move is all about. Archery, Table Tennis, volleyball, Frisbee, Dueling and Bocce are on the disc, and they show off just how accurate the wand controllers are. As well as feeling great, they're definitely entertaining. Of them all, Table Tennis and Archery are our favourites because they're the most challenging over the course of the game. K-Zone is also super impressed with the graphics – they're ahead of those on Wii, which is Move's greatest advantage. The days of PS3 gamers being a little jealous of Wii gamers are over!

R-TYPE

Another arcade classic has just hit the iPhone and iPod Touch, and we can't get enough! It was one of the biggest games in the 1980's because it was easy to start playing, but there were also plenty of hardcore gamers having a go. The graphics and levels are still super-cool and even the lasers still seem powerful! Once you're blasting the games A-da Fighter and blasting away enemies sent from the Bydo Empire, you won't want to put it down. Brand-new isn't always the best - retro often rocks, the hardest. Don't miss R-Type!

My fave videogame is WWF for PS2. I love all the action, and the wrestlers are super-cool!

NAIL'D

The ATV off-road racing game Pure was awesome, but if you happened to miss it, Nail'd is just as hot! It's all about breakneck speed and massive - and we mean MASSIVE - jumps! The mountains are absolutely huge and unbelievably steep. You can even steer your ATV mid-air, and up to 12 people can race online! While most other games are going for super realism, Nail'd isn't - the stunts are absolutely insane (like jumping onto trains)! The maps are over the-top and the ATVs and bikes seem to defy gravity! The mud and dirt look amazing - it flicks onto the camera to add to the chaos! This is racing at its most insane, and we can't wait to rev into it!

SUPER SONIC

HE'S ONE OF THE MOST AWESOME CHARACTERS IN GAMING HISTORY - AND HE'S BACK!

Yep, the world's coolest Hedgehog is about to spin his way back onto consoles everywhere! This videogame icon has starred in over 30 games since the world scored their first taste of Sonic's high-octane skills back in 1991. The "blue dude with the 'tude" has a trio of new games that we're super excited to see. Sonic Colours, Sonic Free Riders and Sonic 4 Episode 1 are looking wicked in their own different ways.

Sonic Colours

Coming to Wii and DS, Colours introduces the Wisps – there are seven all up, and they come in different colours. Depending on the colour each Wisp gives Sonic certain powers, so it's not just his speed, classic Spin Dash or Spin Attack you'll have to rely on. Sonic Team – the makers of the game – haven't revealed all the powers yet, but we wanted to find out more! K-Zone caught up with the boss of Sonic Team and top game developer Takashi Iizuka.

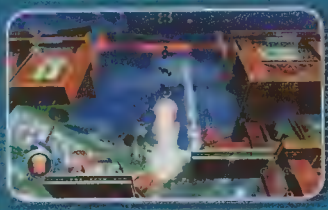

KZ: What have you tried to do differently in Colours?

TI: We always try to add a new action in every game. Usually, we've done this through other characters, such as Tails and Knuckles, but this time we're doing it with Sonic himself.

KZ: What's the story?

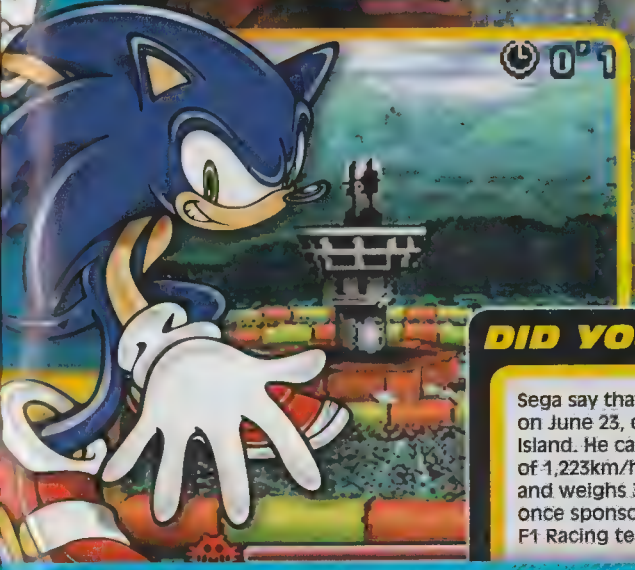

TI: It starts off with Eggman capturing a whole bunch of planets before he decides to build an amusement park. I thought some of the previous Sonic games were a bit serious so I wanted to make Sonic fun again. That's why we wanted to include an amusement park.

KZ: Why are the controls fairly simple?

TI: We wanted to keep it simple to keep up the tempo of the game. How we design the levels is very important in making a good Sonic game! Because of the new colour powers, each stage has multiple ways to get from start to finish.

Spin Twins

As well as Colours, there's a pair of other Sonic games spinning towards release. Sonic Free Riders is one of the crazier Kinect launch games that pits Sonic against his mates in hoverboard racing. The Kinect sensor recognises you leaning, jumping and twisting as you fly around tracks on top of your board.

DID YOU KNOW?

Sega say that Sonic was born on June 23, on Christmas Island. He can run at speeds of 1,223km/h, he's 100cm tall and weighs 35kg. Sonic also once sponsored the Williams F1 Racing team! Cool!

INDOOR CRICKET

WE ALL LOVE CRICKET, AND WITH ANOTHER MAKEOVER, THIS GAME WILL HAVE YOU BATTING FOR SIX!

Cricket isn't known as a fast and furious sport, but in International Cricket 2010 the main focus is now the exciting Twenty20 version of the game. While you can play Test matches, it's the power plays and fast run scoring that makes 2010 seriously fun. Coming to Xbox 360 and PS3, the 2010 game gets two new big features – the Action Cam and Power Stick. The Action Cam makes you feel like you're actually in the middle of the pitch – it's super realistic! The Power Stick gives you 360° control when it comes to batting while there's still a little wait before the finished game is available at the end of this month, we caught up with Australian Cricket Captain Ricky Ponting to have a chat!

What were you into as a kid?

RP: Growing up, it was Cricket, Aussie Rules, and Soccer. I was spotted playing Cricket from a pretty young age, and that helped me eventually get in to the Australian team. I really enjoyed Aussie Rules, but in the last game I ever played, I broke my arm!

Do you have any coaching tips?

RP: After playing Cricket for so long, sometimes you forget the little things because they become second nature. But, one thing I always repeat to myself is to watch the ball. As soon as you do that, all the other distractions fade away

In the game, do you prefer batting or bowling?

RP: Always batting! I'd love it to be all batting! But, the bowling is actually a lot more interactive in this latest game – the bowling in previous games used to be a lot more basic with less options

Do you feel like resetting the game when your character gets out?

RP: No! I always try to get my character out first because I prefer batting as someone else. It's a bit spooky playing the game as yourself! I wouldn't have minded if they made me look a little bit younger though!

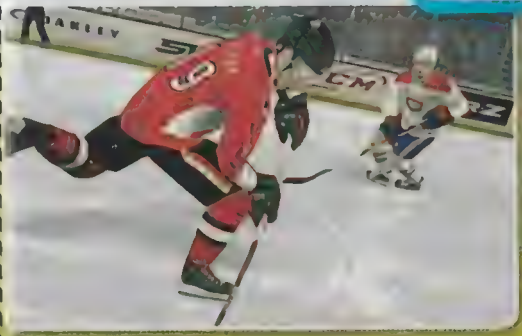

K-Zone rocks! I love it, and I've got every magazine since 2006 (except one February issue) – Robbie

METROID: OTHER M – Wii

Q Hi there! I want to know what happens at the end of Metroid: Other M? I'm stuck a fair way through the game!
Matthew, via email.

We won't spoil the game for you as it sounds like you could be close to the end, but once you do finish, make sure you head back to the Battle Ship after the credits. There you'll be able to take on an extra boss.

SPIDER-MAN: SHATTERED DIMENSIONS – XBOX 360, PS3

BEN 10 VILGAX – DS

Q I'm a huge (in fact, the biggest!) fan and I'd like the Cheats for Ben 10 Alien Force: Vilgax Attacks on DS.
Declan, via email

Hi Declan. The coders didn't build cheats into this game, but you can get some bonuses. Get Albedo by beating him in Hardest mode (which you get by beating the game), and get Lupus Feralisby by defeating Darkstar in Hardest mode.

SPYRO: THE ETERNAL NIGHT – DS

Q Dear Game Ninja, I have Spyro the Eternal Night on DS but I can't beat the second boss. Can you tell me how?
Harry, via email

Firstly, avoid the cannonballs by not being in the middle of the platform. Wait for him to jump down, and when he's on your platform, run around him. Once there are three stars above him, attack. Avoid the bombs he throws by jumping to other platforms. Repeat this two more times and it'll be time to move on!
